

Parent and Player Contract

Players Code of Ethics

It is the responsibility of the player to:

Always represent your team with pride.

Be a role model.

Be committed to sportsmanship, leadership and teamwork.

Honor commitments to the sport, coaches and teammates: give an all-out effort in practice and competition.

Spectator's Code of Ethics

It is the responsibility of the spectator to:

Always represent your team with pride, handling adversity and success with dignity and grace.

Demonstrate sportsmanship through positive support and encouragement of all players, coaches, and officials.

Create an atmosphere of respect for the sport, players, officials, coaches, and fellow spectators.

Recognize that rec sports are a learning experience for kids and mistakes are sometimes made. Praise them in their attempt to improve themselves as players.

PARENT REQUIREMENTS

- Always show my support for my child regardless of the circumstances they are under.
- Support my child's team in a positive manner.
- Enjoy the games! Make it a time to remember.
- Show class and dignity in game-settings toward fellow fans, opposing players, opposing coaches and referees.
- I will allow the coach to coach my child. I will refrain from shouting instructions during the game.

When a situation occurs relating to my child that raises concern, I/we will follow use the following to resolve any issues that may arise:

- 1) Encourage my child to communicate with their coach first.
- 2) I/we will send an inquiry to the West Valley Junior Eagles website to request contact from a board member to discuss the issue.

Parent and Player Contract