

Officials Code of Conduct

I shall be free of obligation to any interest other than the impartial and fair judging of the sport

I shall hold and maintain the basic tenets of officiating, which include history, integrity, neutrality, respect, sensitivity and professionalism

I shall master the rules of the game and the mechanics necessary to enforce the rules

I shall accept responsibility for all actions taken

I will respect all players, coaches, parents, and other officials