

Taylor Pool is originally from the Northern Virginia area, where he played lacrosse since the 4th grade and went on to play in high school for Robinson Secondary School, where they won the State Championship his junior and senior years. He was recruited to a few different colleges, and went on to play a year of Division III lacrosse at Hampden-Sydney College before transferring to Clemson University where he played on the school's club team. Coach Pool tries to stay active with the sport and recently played in the Old Guy Lacrosse 2024 summer league on team Southern Empire. He lives in the Medlock Park neighborhood in Decatur with his wife and two kids.