COACHES CODE OF ETHICS

EHT Elite Sports Organization's Coaches are contributors toward the development of the young athlete. As such, they need to exercise a high level of self-discipline and responsibility. The purpose of the Code of Ethics is to establish the guidelines for a standard of conduct by EHT Elite Sports Organization's Coaches.

The EHT Elite Sport Organization Coach shall teach and encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support and respect for all the athletes, officials, site workers, fellow coaches, and administration of this organization always.

The EHT Elite Sports Organization Coach shall be a positive force in the formation of the youth as a total person. Through the coach's counseling and encouragement, all athletes should learn their value and responsibility to the Team, Organization, and Community.

The EHT Elite Sports Organization Coach shall help their players master the skill of the sport. They shall use practices, scrimmages and games as opportunities to develop the fundamentals skills in each athlete.

The EHT Elite Sports Organization Coach shall conduct himself/herself as a positive role model by refraining from inappropriate language or actions towards athletes, officials, parents, fellow coaches, or administration of this organization while in the presence of athletes.

The EHT Elite Sports Organization Coach shall never bring any alcohol or drugs on the premises.

Failure to follow the Coaches Code of Ethics will result in ANY of the following: verbal warnings, game or season suspension, and removal as Coach as a means of correcting the problem. In determining an appropriate sanction, EHT Elite Sports Organization will consider the severity of the conduct and the frequency of similar or other violations of conduct by the Coach.
