FORMER CVAC PLAYERS SIGN WITH LOCAL COLLEGES

3 Former CVAC Baseball All-Stars Committing to Washington Schools

[RENTON, WA, November 13] Cascade Vista (CVAC) Baseball congratulates three former players for signing with colleges in Western and Eastern Washington. Louie Albrecht committed to Washington State University, Nolan Sparks committed to Everett Community College and Kyler Gerber committed to Pacific Lutheran University. All three players are current Kentridge High School students and players for Kentridge baseball team.

On November 13th, all three players formally announced their commitments to the colleges at Kentridge High School. Albrecht and Gerber were both offered 4-year scholarships and Sparks offered a 2-year scholarship. These three former players played for CVAC through the Pinto, Mustang and Bronco divisions including the All-Star teams.

Cascade Vista Baseball continues to invest in our local community by providing baseball for all kids who are interested in learning the sport. We offer full and partial scholarships every season to make sure that financial constraints won't keep families from enrolling their kids in our program. CVAC has been in the Renton/Kent community since 1963, formally providing sports in equestrian, swimming, soccer, baseball and softball. We currently provide a full baseball program to develop well rounded athletes. For more information on our league and our long history go to: cvac.org
