

Hastings on Hudson Little League – Coach Code of Conduct

As a coach you are expected to be a model of good sportsmanship for your child and all children in the league. With this in mind, the Hastings Little League Board requests that you be responsible for your words and actions while you coach. Specifically, we ask that you conform your behavior to the following code of conduct:

- Teaching the rules of the game to all players, and placing the emotional and physical well- being of those players above any personal desire to win is absolutely paramount.
- Do your very best to provide a safe playing environment, and organize fun and challenging practices.
- Show support to players, coaches, umpires or parents.
- Encourage good sportsmanship among your players, and ensure team members treat all players, coaches, parents and umpires with the utmost respect.
- Be responsible for adhering to and enforcing all league policies and rules.

I also agree that if I fail to uphold the rules and policies of the Hastings on Hudson Little League, I will be subject to action levied by the Hastings Little League Board, which could include, though not limited to: a verbal warning, written warning, suspension, season-long suspension, removal from all league activities. The Hastings Little League Board retains the sole authority to determine what, if any, disciplinary action is appropriate for any infraction.
